

DOWNTOWN E-VENTS

October 11-17, 2019

 DowntownDayton

Featured Event

October 11-27 - Decision Height

Dayton Theatre Guild,

430 Wayne Ave.; call for times.

Decision Height tells the story of six Women's Air Force Service Pilots (called WASPS) who flew aircraft during World War II. While they didn't see combat, these ladies were responsible for transporting planes and pulling targets for live ammunition training, freeing the men for active duty after the attack on Pearl Harbor. The WASPS proved an important asset for the military, but have been largely forgotten in the history books. This play was the winner of the 2013 Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival.
