Featured Event

October 21 - PhilharMonster

Dayton Performing Arts Alliance;
Schuster Performing Arts Center,
Second & Main sts.; 3 p.m.

Halloween in the Miami Valley: find that perfect costume, circle Beggar's Night on the calendar, and head down to the Schuster Center for PhilharMonster! The Dayton Philharmonic continues its much-loved spooky tradition. Maestro Gittleman has gathered more of his favorite eerie music, from the past and present. Kids learn and adults can be reminded that music is meaningful and enjoyable in many different forms and formats. Be sure to come early; prior to the concert in the Wintergarden, the DPO will provide activities and treats for the whole family to enjoy. Who knew being spooky could be so enchanting? Grab seats for the whole family! $14-22. 228-3630 or ticketcenterstage.com.

Also this Week

October 20-January 13 - Exhibit: Muse: Mickalene Thomas Photographs

Dayton Art Institute, 456 Belmonte Park North; call for times.

Mickalene Thomas' photographic work functions as a personal act of deconstruction and reappropriation - both of images she has created herself and images she has singled out as influential. With each series, she grapples with and asserts new definitions of beauty and inspiration. This collection of portraits and staged scenes reflects a very personal community of inspiration as well - a collection of muses. The idea of communities of inspiration will be further carried out via the companion exhibition tete-a-tete, an installation curated by Mickalene Thomas of work from photographers and key images which have inspired her. Call for cost and more info. 223-5277.

Thru October 21- This Random World

Dayton Theatre Guild, 430 Wayne Ave.; call for times.

We want to believe that serendipity brings us together, but how often do we travel parallel paths through the world without noticing? From an ailing woman who plans one final trip, to her daughter planning one great escape, and her son falling prey to a prank gone wrong, this funny, intimate, and heartbreaking play explores the lives that may be happening just out of reach of our own. Following a web of characters whose interwoven lives collide but never quite connect, This Random World shows us that, through the power of chance, we might be closer to each other than we know. Tickets at daytontheatreguild.org. 278-5993.

Thru November 3 - Exhibit: When Things Go Missing

The Contemporary Dayton,
118 N. Jefferson St.; call for times.

In conjunction with FotoFocus Biennial 2018, DVAC presents When Things Go Missing, a solo exhibition of photographs by University of Dayton photography professor Joel Whitaker, presented around four narratives about loss. 228-8414.

October 19 - Chris Bowers

Wiley's Comedy Joint, 101 Pine St.;
7:30 p.m.

Starting as a motivational speaker in Middle Schools, he quickly learned to control and entertain any audience. His comedy challenges conventional wisdom and forces audiences to look at the world from his own skewed perspective. He's part life coach, part cruise director, and part marriage counselor. While many comedians present a negative outlook on life and commiserate with their audience, Bowers is a hilarious force of positivity. $10. 223-5277.

October 19 - Co-Op Fest

Yellow Cab Tavern, 700 E. Fourth St.;
5 p.m.

Doing Business in Brazil

October 23, 2018

9 -11 am

The Entrepreneurs Center

Many small and medium-sized exporters are looking at Brazil as a possible new export market. They know that Brazil is the largest country in South America and the eighth largest economy of the world. But it is no secret that Brazil is still recovering from an economic recession and may present challenges for Ohio exporters.

Brazil is a very diverse country and market. Find out if your product, service or technology is in demand in Brazil. By attending this program, you will get to meet the staff of the Ohio Brazil office and learn about Brazil.

This Program will Cover

- Overview of Brazil - commercial, political and economy at a glance
- An Industrial and Agricultural Giant
- The Three Motors of the Economy: the middle class, the abundant natural resources and the investments in infrastructure
- Advantages and Challenges
- US and Brazil Trade
- Find out more about the trade mission to Brazil and Colombia

Despite taxes and high import duties, the US has done very well in Brazil. Brazil is a very important trade market for the United States. It is among the top 10 markets for US goods and services,

Trade Mission to Brazil and Colombia March 23-30, 2019

The Ohio Small Business Development Center (SBDC) Export Assistance Network (EAN), in partnership with the Ohio Development Services Agency and the Great Lakes St. Lawrence Governors and Premiers invite you to take part in a trade mission to Brazil and Colombia in March 2019. The goal of the mission is to help Ohio companies export products and services to these two important markets in South America.

If you are interested in the export potential of your product or service in Brazil or Colombia, reach out to us. We can provide market intelligence to help you understand your market potential, method of entries, possible opportunities and barriers and customized strategies for entering the market.

Ohio STEP/IMAGE grant may be available to help offset trade mission fees and travel costs.

The number of available slots is limited, so call TODAY to determine if this is the trade mission for you.

as well as trade surplus with Brazil, proving that there are real opportunities. In addition, there is an appetite for US goods and services in Brazil. No matter the challenge, Brazil remains too big an opportunity to miss.

This program will be of benefit if you are:

- Considering doing business in Brazil
- Establishing a network of Brazilian partners
- Experiencing the challenges of doing business in Brazil

Speakers

Ms. Claudia Maria Tomaselli, one of the founders and co-directors of Tomaselli, and Zulatto Consultoria Ltda in Brazil. TVZ Int'l was established in 2004, and is representing the State of Ohio in Brazil. Their expertise is in new business development and foreign partner matchmaking. Claudia has extensive knowledge about the businesses and commercial activity in Brazil. Ms. Tomaselli also manages the commercial intelligence activities of the company, monitoring, coaching, and guiding the in house projects, guaranteeing the standard and quality of the customized services being offered by the TVZ team.

Ms. Zoe Munro, Program Director for Great Lakes St. Lawrence Governors & Premiers, will be presenting detailed information about the Trade Mission to Brazil and Colombia. She will be able to provide details on the mission as well as begin to help with determining if Brazil and Colombia are markets for your products. Come, meet Zoe, and hear more about the trade mission.

One-on-one Appointments

The afternoon of October 23, we will be scheduling one-on-one appointments for both Claudia and Zoe. If you have specific questions about Brazil please let us know so that we can sign you up for a slot to meet with Claudia.

We will also be scheduling appointments for Zoe to talk specifically about your product or service and how they fit into those two markets. Let us know if you want a 15-minute appointment with either Claudia or Zoe.

Sustainability Luncheon

Transforming Attitudes, Values and Beliefs Into Actions

As climate change advocates, we know how important it is to connect to our audience through effective messaging. So, what are the best approaches for constructive, persuasive messages?

Ben McCall, Hanley Sustainability Institute's first Executive Director, helped the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign become one of the most sustainable campuses in the nation. Now at the University of Dayton, he aims to foster strong and interlinked efforts in sustainability education, research, campus operations, and community engagement.

Richard Kaiser, founder of Wilderness Agency (on the short list of Dayton's coolest places to work in Dayton), has dedicated his professional career to producing good work that affects positive change in the community. His company helped organizations streamline their messaging, enhance their experiences and implement marketing initiatives that get results.

Join us on November 7th as our two speakers share how their beliefs and attitudes shaped their success and enabled them to deliver their message .

New Loan Approvals!

County Corp Development's Board recently approved an SBA 504 loan request for Pflaumer & Gehm Optometrists for the construction of a new medical office building in New Carlisle. Dr. Gehm recently took over ownership of the business that is growing and is in need of a larger more modern facility.

In addition, a CDBG loan was approved for Preferred Electric. This Washington Twp. business is moving across the parking lot to a larger facility that will better serve its growing needs.

Interest Rate Update

In previous reports, we commented that interest rates were expected to continue rising. We were right. The October 20 year note rate has returned to its upward trend, jumping 0.243% in a single month. That's the single largest increase since February 2018 when rates increased by 0.300%

SMALL BUSINESS LOANS AND RATES

Did you know that with a BizCap loan, your small business can retain more “cash in pocket” to fund operations. Why tie up your small business’ cash in long-term capital assets when you can put it to better use as you grow your business?

SBA 504 Loans

SBA 504 loans for new projects and to refinance existing real estate or capital equipment debt could be the perfect funding solution for your company’s growth.

We welcomed two new cohorts into our Master's programs for this academic year. We have twenty-one students in our Master of Science in Logistics and Supply Chain Management program and fourteen students (plus two continuing students) in our Master of Information Systems.

Kathryn Thompson is our new graduate assistant and she is a student in our M.S. in Logistics and Supply Chain Management program. Feel free to contact her about our graduate programs in the ISSCM department.

We will have our next "Taste Your Master's" event on Saturday, January 5th, 2019 at Rike Hall from 11:00 am to 1:30 pm. Please register at Eventbrite.

If you are an employer, there are two ways that you could use your influence to assist us: direct referrals, and host a "Lunch and Learn" at your facility. We ask all our friends in the community to recommend our programs to their associates. The sustainability of these programs is dependent on our friends in the community.

Aigerim Barr, Tracy Schlenker, and Kassidy Williams worked as interns at CareSource in the summer.

Brad Roediger, Community Relations Manager at CareSource said, "The interns we have had from Wright State this year, and in years past, have proven to us that we don't have to go too far to find excellent talent for our business needs. This year, more than half of our interns were Wright State Students and I fully expect them to have the opportunity to continue with us full time once they graduate. From my experience, the MIS students, and WSU students in general come to us with the desire to learn the specifics of our industry and the technical skills to jump right into our teams and contribute at a high level.”

ISSCM Student Club

Message from the President Cassidy Williams

"I'm so happy how the club events have been going so far this semester. I look forward to meeting and connecting with MIS & SCM students through these events. The ISSCM Club is looking for potential club officers for this upcoming semester as well!"

Master Students Graduation

In August, 48 students graduated from the Master of Information Systems and the Master of Science in Logistics & Supply Chain Management programs! Congratulations to all and Outstanding Award recipients Hui (Ana) He, Beth Hunkler, and Scott Denuhl!

Master's Programs Residency

Also in August, we welcomed 37 new master students into our programs! They will study and graduate in August 2019! Welcome!

Master's Programs Information

The Master of Science in Logistics and Supply Chain Management program and the Master of Information Systems are two unique, accredited programs with both on-campus (residency) and online components designed for the working professional. There are three weekend residencies over the yearlong course of the program, for a total of 10.5 days on campus including graduation. Distance is generally not a major factor in any decision to participate in these programs because most of the work is online.

In addition, we have two students currently enrolled in our Graduate Certificate in Information Technology Management and another three students are scheduled to start in the Spring 2019. This new Graduate Certificate in Information Technology Management is built on the same educational platform as our Master's program but it only requires three classes. We have seen an interest in the graduate certificate from students working on an MBA; these MBA students can elect to obtain the Information Technology Management Graduate Certificate through the Interdisciplinary Business Concentration.

Better together: Why owners get more value when contractors and architects collaborate

When you're on a tight schedule, you wouldn't set out for an unfamiliar destination without first consulting a GPS or a map.

Yet that's what many owners do when they construct a new facility using the design-bid-build model. In this situation, owners hire an architect, complete the design drawings, and then go out to bid for a contractor. In the process, they lose out on valuable guidance early on in the project, when errors
